Afinação: D G C F A D /

and put an end to our endless progressive tendency to scorn provincial concepts like your dowry and your daddy's farm?

-Play the first 7 bars as usual; then this 8th bar instead, before the bridge:

" For love to key: Eb major time: 4/4

 tempo: Q=75 bpm

BRIDGE

find us of all people I never

-Josh tunes his acoustic guitar one full step down (D G C F A D).

-You could also stay in standard tuning, put capo on the 3rd fret, and then voice the chords on the lower strings instead, like this:

thought it be so simple ooh...

FOREPLAY

-Play these 8 bars for the verses as well.
 -In terms of finger picking, the most efficient picking is to use one finger for each string, whatever fingers you prefer using. Josh uses T I M R.

VERSE 4 (INSTRUMENTAL)

" ooh...

VERSE 5

" Let's buy a plantation house and let the yard grow wild till we don't need the signs that say 'Keep out'
 I've got some money left, and it's cheaper in the South being

(The simply mean the open strings

picked when Josh switches

between chords.)

VERSE 6

" I need someone I can trust to protect me from our seven daughters when my body says 'Enough!'
 Don't let me die in a hospital, I'll save the big one for the last time we make love

ENDING

" Insert here

a sentiment re' our golden years

VERSE 1

" We met in a parking lot just buying coffee and cigarettes, firewood and bad wine long since gone but I'm still drunk and hot, wide awake and breathing hard

All cause I went to the

" And now, in just one year's time
 I've become jealous, rail-thin, prone to paranoia when I'm stoned
 If this isn't true love, someone oughta put me in a home store one

VERSE 3

" Say, do you wanna get married,

what's your name?"

"I've seen you around,
