

Finneas - Same Old Story

tom:
 Same old story you've heard a hundred times
 You know the punchlines
 An allegory for what you couldn't find
 To help you unwind
 A little lifted, little too high
 Maybe love is a way to kill time
 Same old story you told me yesterday
 It ends the same way
 Purgatory and nothing new to say
 Are you still okay?

A little lonely, a little wasted
 You think you know me and I wish you did
 Same old story about a haunted house
 We had to burn down (We had to burn down)
 Did I get boring? Or did I wear you out?
 It's a nice couch
 The roof starts leakin', mouth gets too dry
 I know you're leavin', I don't care why
 Just be careful what you wish for
 It's controversial that I am still yours
 Just be careful what you wish for
 It's controversial that I am still yours
