

Fleet Foxes - He Doesn't Know Why

Tom: D
Intro: D

G A G G
Penniless and tired, let your hair grow long
Em Bm Gbm

G A
I was looking at you there and your face looked wrong
D Em Gbm G
Memory is a fickle silent song
A
I didn't understand

G A G G
Image and a light as the morning nears
Em Bm Gbm
you don't say a single word of your last two years
D Em Gbm G
Well you will be, you'll reach the frontier
A
I didn't understand, oh

G A G G
See your wringing hands and a silver knife
Em Bm Gbm G
Twenty dollars in your hand that you hold so tight

D Em Gbm G
All the evidence of your vagrant life
A
My brother you were born

G A G G
And you will try to do what you did before
Em Bm Gbm G
Pull the wool over your eyes, for a week or more
D Em Gbm G
Let your family take you back to your
A
Original mind.

G D
There's nothing I can do
G D
There's nothing I can do
D
There's nothing I can say
G D
There's nothing I can say
I can say
Outro: D

Acordes

