

Fleet Foxes - Meadowlarks

Tom: G

INTRO (fingerpicking):

VERSE 1:

Meadowlark, fly away down

I hold a cornucopia and a golden crown

For you to wear upon your fleecy down

A meadow lark sing to me

VERSE 2: same guitar part.

G Hummingbird, just let me down G

G7 Inside the broken oth of your oliva (lyrics?!?) C
D7sus2 I do believe you gave it your best try Em

D C D C G
A hummingbird sing to me

--BREAK: same chords guitar part as verse, with "harmony humming"

Gaj7aj7sus2

D C D C G
A hummingbird sing to me

NEW SECTION:

Don't believe a word that I haven't heard

Little children laughing at the boys and girl

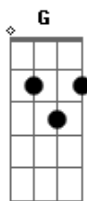

The meadow lark singing to you each and every day

The arclad on the hills and the market in the hay

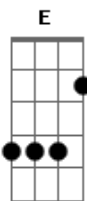

After this point, where the "oohs" come in, it is a combination of Gm chord and C chord (either sounds great) strumming, with this on the top, repeated:

The song ends on a G major chord.
