

Fleet Foxes - Ragged Wood

Tom: E

^E
Come down from the mountain, you have been gone too long
The spring is upon us, follow my only song

^A ^E
Settle down with me by the fire of my young love
^B ^A ^E
You should come back home, back on your own now

^E
The world is alive now, in and outside I know
You run through the forest, settle before the sun

^A ^E
Darling, I can barely remember you beside me
^B ^A ^E

You should come back home, back on your own now

^B ^E
And even in the light, when the woman of the woods came by
^A ^E
To give to you the word of the old man

^B ^E
In the morning tide when the sparrow and the seagull fly
^A ^E
And Johnathan and Evelyn get tired

^E ^A ^B ^E ^A ^{Dbm}
Lie to me if you will at the top of Beringer Hill

^B ^A ^E ^B ^A ^E
Tell me anything you want, any old lie will do

^D ^{Dbm} ^B
Call me back to you

^E
Back to you
