When I see you again
 Will it be the same

When I see you again

Will it be over

When I see you again
 Will your great eyes still say
 What's the matter, baby
 What's the matter, baby
 What's the matter, baby, baby, baby
 What's the matter, baby
 What's the matter, baby
 What's the matter, baby, baby

So she walks slowly down the hall
 There are many doors in the hallway
 And she stares at the stairs
 Ooh there are many things to stare at these days
 If she sees him again

Will your very best friend
 Will your very best friend
 Oh, have been replaced by some other

What's the matter, baby
 What's the matter, baby
 What's the matter, baby, baby, baby
 What's the matter, baby
 What's the matter, baby
 What's the matter, baby, baby

And the dream says I want you
 And the dream is gone
 So she stays up nights on the end

Well at least there is a dream left

If I see you again
 Will it be over
 If I see you again
 Will it be the same
 SOLO

If I see you again
 Will it be over

Again and again
 Over and over
