

Flo Rida - Hello Friday

Tom: C

Refrão:

Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time
 You just save me when my life came tumbling down
 And I know you're gonna leave me
 Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time

Verso 1:

Yeah, like a charm, baby
 Brighter than this thing on my arm, baby
 It's a party every time you come around, baby
 Now if you're down, baby
 I can be the ground, baby, hear me running
 Ain't nothing looking better than when I see you coming
 Ain't none other feeling better than when I'm blowing money
 You can tell that I'm an addict, I'm addicted to money
 I'm addicted to balling

Pré Refrão:

I got the sip of Patron, I bought a ticket to Rome
 And by the end of the evening, forget a weekend
 We won't even know what planet we on
 Cause Monday, so many, goddamn it
 Tuesday, she wanna go up
 But Wednesday, I panic, come scrambling
 Thursday just ain't my luck

Refrão:

Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time
 You just save me when my life came tumbling down
 And I know you're gonna leave me
 Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time

Verso 2:

Ordering triple, seeing double, I'm acting single
 You on the top, on the bottom and she the middle
 I did all for the nookie, Oreo cookie
 Bout to kill it, shawty, don't push me
 Now drop it, you got it

Thank God it's Friday
 We love that TGIF, word, yeah
 Let's get it popping, baby
 Show me something, baby
 Or I can blow it on the next girl

Pré Refrão:

I got the 151, you got a way with your tongue
 And by the end of the evening, forget a weekend
 We won't even know what planet we on
 Cause Monday, so many, goddamn it
 Tuesday, she wanna go up
 But Wednesday, I panic, come scrambling
 Thursday just ain't my luck

Refrão:

Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time
 You just save me when my life came tumbling down
 And I know you're gonna leave me
 Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time

Ponte:

Saturday, I'm hitting all the beaches
 And I ain't talking playing in the sun
 Sunday, I'm praying for forgiveness
 But the week just begun, hun
 Cause Monday, so many, goddamn it
 Tuesday, she wanna go up
 But Wednesday, I panic, come scrambling
 Thursday just ain't my luck

Refrão:

Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time
 You just save me when my life came tumbling down
 And I know you're gonna leave me
 Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time
 Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time
 You just save me when my life came tumbling down
 And I know you're gonna leave me
 Hello, Friday, I've been waiting for you for a long time
