

Flogging Molly - Drunken Lullabies

tom:

Intro: G C G D
G C G D G

[Primeira Parte]

Must it take a life
For hateful eyes
To glisten once again
Five hundred years
Like gelignite
Have blown us all to hell
(To hell!)
What savior rests while on
His cross we die
Forgotten freedom burns
Has the Shepherd led
His lambs astray
To the bigot and the gun

[Refrão]

Must it take a life
For hateful eyes
To glisten once again
?Cause we find ourselves
In the same old mess
Singin' drunken lullabies

(G C G D)
(G C G D G)

[Segunda Parte]

I watch and stare
As Roisin's eyes
Turn a darker shade of red
And the bullet with
This sniper lie
In their bloody gutless cell
Must we starve on crumbs
From long ago
Through bars these
Men made steel
Is it a great or
Little thing we fought

Em
Knelt the conscience
Blessed to kill

[Refrão]

Must it take a life
For hateful eyes
To glisten once again
?Cause we find ourselves
In the same old mess
Singin' drunken lullabies

[Ponte]

Ah, but maybe it's the way
We we're taught
Or maybe it's the way
We fought
But a smile never grins
Without tears to begin
For each kiss is a cry
We all lost

[Pré-Refrão]

Though nothing is left to gain
But for the banshee
That stole the grave

[Refrão]

?Cause we find ourselves
In the same old mess
Singin' drunken lullabies

[Terceira Parte]

I sit in and dwell
On faces past
Like memories seem to fade
No color left
But black and white
And soon we'll all turn grey
But may these shadows

Rise to walk again
 With lessons truly learnt
 When the blossom flowers
 In each our hearts
 Shall beat a new found flame

[Refrão Final]

Must it take a life
 For hateful eyes
 To glisten once again

?Cause we find ourselves
 In the same old mess
 Singin' drunken lullabies

?Cause we find ourselves
 In the same old mess
 Singin' drunken lullabies
