[Segunda Parte]

     G
I watch and stare

As Roisin's eyes
            Em
Turn a darker shade of red
          C
And the bullet with

This sniper lie
          Em            D
In their bloody gutless cell
                      G
Must we starve on crumbs

From long ago
         Em
Through bars these

Men made steel
Is it a great or

Little thing we fought

We fought
           C           D
But a smile never grins
          G         C
Without tears to begin

We all lost

That stole the grave

On faces past

Like memories seem to fade
No color left

But black and white
              Em            D
And soon we'll all turn grey
                     G
But may these shadows
