

Flogging Molly - Wanderlust

Tom: G

Band - Flogging Molly
 Song - The Wanderlust (Acoustic)
 Album - Whiskey on a Sunday
 Tabber - XylonKlaatu
 Intro: G Am G Am G Am C D G

G Am
 Well I'd love to photograph your hand
 G Am
 Then shake it for a while
 G Am
 Cause you learn so much about someone
 C D G
 A brother or a swine

G Am
 The veins that plough beneath your path
 G Am
 With so many tales to tell
 G Am
 A picture out of focus
 C D G
 In a frame where no one cares

D
 Calm the ocean breeze
 C G
 Quiet the raging sea
 D
 This stormy ship we sail
 G D
 Is a bottle filled with rage

[Chorus 1]
 G C
 Do you still walk the streets at night?
 G C
 With the wandlust you fight
 G C D G
 Back to the corner where we went our separate ways
 G Am

Well we walked upon the railroad
 G Am
 Cause the train no longer ran
 G Am
 Where we caught a glimpse of all we missed
 C D G
 From the stars that filled our eyes

G Am
 With a dollar in your only coat
 G Am
 And a fireball in your hand
 G Am
 You set your sails for better days
 C D G
 Down in South Australia

D
 Dark though it has been
 C G
 Your old spirit still shines within
 D
 These last thirteen years deprived
 C D
 Of us anything that's worth sayin'

[Chorus 2]
 G D G C
 So raise a cheer to those forgotten years
 G C D Em C Em D
 Back to the corner where we went our separate ways

[Chorus 1] x2
 G Am
 Now the carnival is goin' home
 G Am
 The ferris wheel is spent
 G Am
 For those rovin' years of endless jeers
 C D G
 Have dried all that was left

Acordes

