

Florence and The Machine - Hurricane Drunk

Tom: G

No walls can keep me protected
 No sleep Nothing in between me and the rain
 And you can't save me now Cause I belong to the hurricane
 I'm gonna blow myself away
 I'm going out
 I'm gonna drink myself to death
 And in the crowd
 I see you with someone else

I brace myself
 Cause I know it's going to hurt
 But I like to think at least things can't get any worse
 I hope that you see me
 Cause I'm staring at you
 But by the way that you look over
 You look right through
 Then you lean and kiss her on the head
 And I never felt so alive and so dead
