

Florence and The Machine - June

Intro: F

Tom:

The show was ending and I had started to crack
 Woke up in Chicago and the sky turned black
 And you're so high, you're so high, you had to be an angel
 And I'm so high, I'm so high, I can see an angel

[Refrão]

I hear your heart beating in your chest
 The world slows 'till there's nothing left
 Skyscrapers look on like great, unblinking giants (oh)
 In those heavy days in June
 When love became an act of defiance

(F Am C Dm E7)

[Ponte]

Hold on to each other
 Hold on to each other
 Hold on to each other
 Hold on to each other

And you were broken-hearted and the world was too
 And I was beginning to lose my grip

And I have always held it loosely
 But this time I admit
 I felt it really start to slip
 And choirs sang in the street
 And I would come to you
 To watch the television screen in your hotel room
 Always down to hide with you

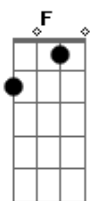

[Ponte]

Hold on to each other
 Hold on to each other
 Hold on to each other
 Hold on to each other

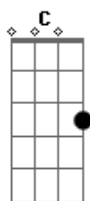

[Final]

You're so high, you're so high
 You're so high, you're so high
 You're so high, you're so high
 You had to be an angel
 I'm so high, I'm so high
 I'm so high, I'm so high
 I'm so high, I'm so high
 I can see an angel
