

Florence and The Machine - Leave My Body

Tom: C

I'm gonna be released from behind these lies
 And I don't care whether I live or die
 And I'm losing blood, I'm gonna leave my bones
 And I don't want your heart it leaves me cold

I don't want your future
 I don't need your past
 One bright moment
 Is all I ask

I'm gonna leave my body (movin' up to higher ground)
 I'm gonna lose my mind (history keeps pullin' me down)
 Said I'm gonna leave my body (movin' up to higher ground)
 I'm gonna lose my mind (history keeps pullin' me, pullin' me down)

I don't need a husband, don't need no wife
 And I don't need the day, I don't need the night
 And I don't need the birds, let them fly away
 And I don't want the crowds, they never seem to stay

I don't want no future
 I don't need no past
 One bright moment
 Is all I ask
 I don't want your future

I don't need your past
 One bright moment
 Is all I ask and

I'm gonna leave my body (movin' up to higher ground)
 I'm gonna lose my mind (history keeps pullin' me down)
 Said, I'm gonna leave my body (movin' up to higher ground)
 I'm gonna lose my, lose my mind (history keeps pullin' me, pullin' me down)

(pullin' me down)
 Pullin' me down (and it's pullin' me down)
 Pullin' me down, oh (and it's pullin' me down)
 Pullin' me down (and it's pullin' me, pullin' me down)
 Pullin' me, pullin' me down

I'm gonna leave my body (movin' up to higher ground)
 I'm gonna lose my mind (history keeps pullin' me down)
 Said I'm gonna leave my body (movin' up to higher ground)
 I'm gonna lose my mind (history keeps pullin' me, pullin' me)

Yeah, said I'm gonna leave my body (movin' up to higher ground)
 I'm gonna lose my mind (history keeps pullin' me down)
(movin' up to higher ground)
 it's pullin' me down, oh oh, oh oh (history keeps pullin' me, pullin' me down)
