

Florence and The Machine - Mermaids

tom:

Intro: Dm F G
Dm F G

Dm F G
..I thought that I was hungry for love
Dm F G
..Maybe I'm just hungry for blood
Dm G
..Tear from a woman on the shore
Am C
..You prairie ghost on a cottage hall
Dm G
..Oh, the mermaids have sharp teeth
Am C
..Razor blades all in your feet

( Dm F A7 )
( Dm F A7 G )

Dm F
England is only ever grey or green
A7
The girls glitter striding

Glorious and coatless in the rain
Dm F
..I remember fallin' through these streets
A7
Somewhat out of place, if not for the drunkenness

Dm F
It makes my chest hurt to think of it
A7
Not of regret, but of missing that

Dm F
Cheerful oblivion
A7 G
Cheerful oblivion

Dm F
It was not all pain and pavement slick with rain
Am G
And shinin' under lights from shitty clubs and doing shitty drugs

Dm F Am G
And huggin' girls that smelled like Britney Spears and coconuts

Dm F
And with your mermaid hair and your teeth so sharp
Am G
You crawled from the sea to break that sailor's heart
Dm F
You only get one night up on the shore
Am G
So dance like you've never danced before
Dm F
And the dance floor is filling up with blood
Am G
But, oh, Lord, you've never been so in love

Dm F Am G
.....Cheerful oblivion
Dm F
Cheerful oblivion
Am G
Cheerful oblivion

F
And the mermaids, they come once a year
G
They climb the struts of Brighton Pier
Am
They come to drink, they come to dance
Em
To sacrifice a human heart
F G
And the world is so much wilder than you think
Am
You haven't seen nothin' 'til you seen an English girl drink

Dm F Am G
.....Cheerful oblivion
Dm F
Cheerful oblivion
Am G
Cheerful oblivion
