C Am
Daylight, I dream of you softly

Em F
I wrote you a letter that will never reach you

C Am
In Montreal, the days are much colder there

Em F
Now you grow older there, without me

C Am
On the lookout, baby won't you look out?

Em F
A car full of raccoons, I think that I'm crazy

C Am
And downtown, the bar lights illuminate

Em F
Lost in a cityscape where I try to find you

G Am
You walk like a miracle, bathing in starlight

C G
Your voice burning holes in the frame

G Am
I danced in the parking lot, cried in the taxi home

C G
Cause I still remembered your name

C E F Fm
And oh, I'm not in love anymore, anymore

C E F Fm

But I will keep you close to me for--ever

C Am
Moonlight, I dream of you endlessly

Em F
Drowning in reverie, waiting for morning

C Am
Dim light, I'm drunk at the bar again

Em F
Holding a stranger's hand, a crowd with no faces

G Am
And there you are, beautiful just like the first time

C G
You reach out, I'm shaking again

G Am
You're gone in a moment, you leave me alone

C G
But I swear you were real in my hands

C E F Fm
And oh, I'm not in love anymore, anymore

C E F Fm
But I will keep you close to me for--ever

C Am
I know these words might mean nothing now

Em
While I'm stuck in this ghost town

F
Your softness still haunts me

C Am
Someday I'll find my way out of here

Em
If you don't change your mind, my dear

F
I'll take you with me
