G
Three bullets in a wedding dress
Am
Well I know he'll kill me but I love that boy to death Em
C
G
Felt bad when he took those pills, saying "Ha ha ha, we're going straight to hell"

The smell of sweat and sweetness in your room Am
Em
Yeah, I was scared, but what can you do?
C
You turn around and tell me it's okay
G
But my hands still have the morphine shakes

I'm alive but I don't know where I am Am
Em
Wanna leave but I don't know if I can

Drop out of art school
C
Spend my life in hotel bedrooms

G
Think I saw him slow-mo crashing on the interstate Am
Em
Think I saw him sleeping through a hurricane C

He's a violent man and his heart's decayed
C
He's a liar but I just can't stay away

(C)

[Refrão]

Am G C
Now he's smoking out the window every morning
Am G

While I get high in the bathroom
C

We're always on the upswing baby
Am G C
Phosphenes in our starry eyes today

Am G
April to our deathbed
C

We're always on the upswing baby

[Segunda Parte]

G Am
He's got a new girl and i'm sure that she's alright

Em
But he still calls me late at night

C
Never meant to leave him here like this

G
Voicemail sings a fucking wreck
Am

I'm still written in his arms
Em
Six years between the thing he wants
C
Nose bleeds like an afterthought
G
Baby, don't breathe out, it's all we've got
Am
Live life on endless holiday
Em
So fun but i've got bills to pay
C
I don't love any of these men
C
Just want to feel the most I can
