Em D
I want the parts of you that you only show
G C7M
To the corner of your bathroom mirror
Em D
I want the parts of your hand grenade heart
G C7M
That beat slowly with anger and fear
Em D
I want the parts of you that you only show
G C7M
To the birds outside your bedroom window
Em D
I want the teeth that you lost as a child
G C7M
That you hide in a box under your pillow

Em D
I want your quiet, your screaming and thrashing
A C
The salt on your lips and the hands that god gave you
Em D
And I want your violence, your silent sedation
A C
Your moon eyes, your telescope, morbid fixation

Em D
And I want your pyro, your born-again virgin
A C
Your hands on my insides, your fingertips crawling in

Acordes

Em D
I want your Jesus, your suicide mission
A C
Your lips on the microphone, soft disposition

Em D
And I want your parties, the shark in your water
A C
The scrapes on your knees and the blood that spills over
Em D
And I want your zeroes, your polluted marrow
A C
The sweat on your palms and the surveillance shadow

Em D
I want your secrets, your clementine fields
A C
The ropes that you climb up, the parts that don't heal
Em D
I want your safe word, your passive resistance
A C
The sickness you foster, your favourite addictions

Em D
I want your nightmares, the ghost in your doorway
A C
Your paralyzed sleep and your
Em D
I want you, butterfly, I want you sailor
A C
I Am your lover and I Am your jailor
