

Ellen Foley - What's a Matter Baby

tom:

I know the reason you've been cryin'
 And I heard she won't be needin' you
 How does it feel, bein' the one left behind (What's the matter baby)
 What's the matter baby, is she hurtin' you?
 And I heard you found out she's been cheatin'
 Oh yeah and I heard you even thought that she was untrue
 Well how does it feel being on the outside lookin' in (What's the matter baby)
 What's the matter baby, is she hurtin' you?
 What's the matter baby, is she hurtin' you?
 What's the matter baby, is she hurtin' you?
 Remember, remember when I needed you so bad
 Remember, what you had to say
 You told me Little girl, find another sooner or later,

You left, you left then and you walked away
 I know, I know that hou've been askin' about me (What's the matter baby) well I'm sorry baby but I've got somebody new Whoa, whoa, whoa my hurt, my hurt, my hurt is just about over
 Well let me tell you somethin' baby, it's just startin' for you
 What's the matter baby, is she hurtin' you?
 What's the matter baby baby baby, that girl has she been hurtin' you?
 What's the matter baby?
 What's the matter, uh?
 Come on boy, you can tell me
 Remember I'm a very good friend of yours
 Yes and I know a little bit about pain
 Does it hurt?...
 Does it hurt, uh? What's the matter baby?...
