Foo Fighters - Baker St.

But you're crying, you're crying now
  Key:
10b - Bend note
13h - Hammer-on
                                                                 --Repeat Solo--
12p - Pull-off
\dot{13/10} - Slide to next note
10~~~ - Hold note
                                                                Way down the street there's a light in his place
  - Ghost note, don't necessarily play it
(x12) - Play 12 times
                                                                 You open the door, he's got that look on his face
Intro:
                                                                 And he asks you where you've been, you tell him who you've seen
Solo 1:
                                                                 And you talk about everything (with power chords - should be strummed by guitar 2 during solo)
                                                                He's got this dream about buying some land
                                                                He's gonna give up the crack and the one night stands
                                                                 And then he'll settle down, it's a quiet little town
                                                                And forget about everything
Winding your way down on Baker Street
                                                                But you know he'll always keep moving
Light in your head, and dead on your feet
Well another crazy day, you drink the night away
                                                                 You know he's never gonna stop moving
And forget about everything
                                                                 Cause he's rolling, he's the rolling stone
                                                                                             Am
                                                                And when you wake up it's a new morning
This city's dance makes you feel so cold, it's got
                                                                 The sun is shining it's a new morning
So many people but its got no soul
                                                                                  G
                                                                And you're going, you're going home
And its taken you so long to find out you were wrong
                                                                 --Repeat Intro--
When you thought it held everything.
                                                                --Repeat Solo 1--
You used to think that it was so easy
                                                                Final Solo:
                                                                 (Solo 1's chords strummed whilst playing this)
You used to say that it was so easy
   C
But you're trying, you're trying now
Another year and then you'd be happy
                                                                           (x12)

Just one more year and then you'd be happy
