Foo Fighters - I Am a River

Tom: E

Riff (acompanha o verso até o refrão):

A
 There is a secret, I found a secret,
            E
 Behind a soho door.
A
 There is a reason, I found a reason,
                 E
 Beneath the subway floor.
A
 I found the water, the devil's water,
                      E
 And walked along it's shore.
B
 Is that what you want?

A
 The channel's changing, the heart is racing,
                 E
 From voices on a wire.

A
 The soul is yearning, the cold is burning,
                   E
 The ember starts a fire.
A
 Can we recover, love for each other,
                     E
 The measure of your life

B
 Is that what you want?
 Is that what you really want?

    A   E

A river, a river
    B   E
A river running under ground
    A   E
A river, a river
B
 Is that what you want?
 Is that what you really want?
