I should have known
 That it would end this way
 I should have known
 There was no other way
 Didn't hear your warning
 Damn my heart gone deaf
 I should have known
 Look at the shape you're in
 I should have known
 But I dove right in
 One thing is for certain as I'm standing here
 I should have known
 Lay your hands in mine
 Heal me one last time
 Though I cannot forgive you yet
 No I cannot forgive you yet
 You leave my heart in debt
 I should have known
 I was inside of you
 I should have known
 There was that side of you
 Came without a warning
 Caught me unaware
 I should have known

I've been here before
 I should have known
 Don't want it anymore
 One thing is for certain
 I'm still standing here
 I should have known
 Lay your hands in mine
 Heal me one last time
 Though I cannot forgive you yet
 No I cannot forgive you yet
 To leave my heart in debt
 No I cannot forgive you yet
 No I cannot forgive you yet
 You leave my heart in debt
 I should have known
 Maybe you was right
 Didn't want a fight
 I should have known
 Couldn't read the signs
 Couldn't see the light
 I should have known
 Though I cannot forgive you yet
 No I cannot forgive you yet
 You leave my heart in debt
 No I cannot forgive you yet
 No I cannot forgive you yet
 You leave my heart in debt
 No I cannot forgive you yet
 No I cannot forgive you yet
 You leave us all in debt
 I should have know
