

For King & Country - Together

tom:
                Bb (forma dos acordes no tom de G )
Capostraste na 3^{\underline{a}} casa
                                                                If we fall
                                                                We will fall together
                               Am
                                                                Together
Ah ah-ah ah ah-ah ah
Ah-ah ah ah
                                                                When we rise
Ah-ah ah ah
                                                                We will rise together
                                                                Together
This is for the busted heart
This is for the question mark
                                                                Ah ah-ah ah ah-ah ah
This is for the outcast soul, lost control, no one knows
                                                                Ah-ah ah ah
                                                                Ah-ah ah ah
Singing for the can't go back
Singing for the broken past
                                                                If you're looking for hope tonight (you're all alone)
Singing for the just found out, life is now, upside down
                                                                If you're feeling alone tonight (and you feel it)
                                                                If you're looking for love tonight (I can promise)
 If you're looking for hope tonight raise your hand
                                                                We're gonna make it happen
 If you're feeling alone and don't understand
                                                                Then I will be by your side (by your side)
 If you're fighting in the fight of your life, please stand
                                                                Love is in the air tonight (can you feel it?)
 We're gonna make it through this hand in hand
                                                                Come up and see the light
If we fall
                                                                Forever and ever just as long as we're together
We will fall together
                                                                If we fall
  Em
Together
                                                                We will fall together
This is for the second chance
                                                                Together
                                                                When we rise
This is for the real romance
Singing for the loved in vain, overcame, it's not too late
                                                                We will rise together
                                                                Together
 If you're looking for hope tonight raise your hand
 If you're feeling alone and don't understand
                                                                Together we are dangerous
If you're fighting in the fight of your life, please stand
                                                                Together with our differences
                                                                Together we are bolder, braver, stronger
Acordes
