

Foreigner - Heart Turns To Stone

tom:

Intro: Am G Am G
Am G Am G

[Primeira Parte]

The days and nights you sit around wondering where can she be
You're hoping that she might appear out of nowhere
But you fail to see

All the hurt inside, the wounded pride
Ooh what she went through for you
You cheated and lied, as her love slowly died
And her heart just broke in two

[Pré-Refrão]

When she was with you, all along
Behind you, right or wrong
She tried to hold on, hold on
But you went too far, and she's gone

[Refrão]

And now it's over and her heart turns to stone
No time for pity, when her heart turns to stone
She cries a little as her heart turns to stone
She's that kind of woman
She'll do fine on her own

(Am G Am G)
(Am G Am G)

[Segunda Parte]

What you thought was a game
A game you were winning
Wouldn't go your way
Now you've lost what you had
And your back to the beginning

[Pré-Refrão]

When she was with you, all along
Behind you, right or wrong
She tried to hold on, hold on
But you went too far, and she's gone

[Refrão]

And now it's over and her heart turns to stone
No time for pity, when her heart turns to stone
She cries a little as her heart turns to stone
She's that kind of woman
She'll get by on her own

[Solo] Em C Em C

[Refrão]

She hides the pain but her heart turns to stone
No time for pity when her heart turns to stone
She cries sometimes as her heart turns to stone
Listen to her cry
Listen to her cry
She's a woman now
Ooh it's a sad thing to see
To see a heart turn to stone
