Album: The Very Best and Beyond
I have always wanted to learn this song, and unfortunately, could never find a tab that sounded right.

So I gave a try at transcribing it myself, and this sounds much better.

I play the first part not as barre chords, but with my first finger at the third fret, and my third and fourth fingers squeezed in at the fifth fret. Then I can put my second finger at the fourth fret.

Then to play the next part, all you have to do is lift your pinkie. The same applies for the 8th and 10th fret chords, just put your pinkie down instead of lifting it.
