

Foreigner - When Comes The Love

Tom: B
Intro: Abm B E 4x
Solo Sax 2x

I remember the day seems so far away

When I walked into your life

And the look in your eyes, how it took you by surprise

But it felt so right

Then I drew you in, told you anything

'Cause I wanted you so bad

Girl, I led you on, said, "There's nothing wrong

In giving your heart to me"

Refrão

But when it comes to love, I should know better

When it comes to love I take the blame

'Cause you are the one I should've held on to

Yeah, it coulda been you

Intro: Abm B
I never realized how time was on my side

Lost sight of my perfect world

And the man that I've become from the damage that I've done

It's so clear to me now

But I wished that I never was the kind

To steal a lonely heart

And I didn't see how good you were for me

Now it's too late to go back

Refrão

'Cause when it comes to love, I should know better

When it comes to love, I take the blame

'Cause you are the one I should've held on to

When it comes to love, girl, I can't help it

When it comes to love, I always lose my way

And you are the one I should've held on to

Ah, it coulda been you

Making a change in my heart

Finding a new place to start

Wondering what I can do

Will I ever get over you? No

Break (tocando de leve os acordes)

When it comes to love, I should know better

When it comes to love, I take the blame (subindo) 2 tempos

'Cause you are the one I should've held on to

Refrão 1x
