In my head, when the wind
Whistles and your head blows bells
I put my mind into the ocean

Haven't been down there for many long years
Tropical fruit, mystery cave snail stones
All books come from minnesota
So heed my relation at the radio stations
I am your patient
Lovely red raincoat

Cosmic vibrations, love is the answer
But where must we go again to become friends?
Where must we go again to become friends?
Where must we go to become friends?
Where must we go again to become friends?
Where must we go?
