

Foy Vance - Cradled In Arms

Intro: Ab Ab tom:

Sometimes I remember that it is November
 And I once was cradled in arms
 Given a bible
 For all of it's cheek it had charm
 (Ab Eb Bb)

There on the spine, my name was inscribed
 Like my pain gets inscribed in your heart
 But hold it together, I've never felt better
 And we've fared the weather so far

So try not to worry
 Consider the stars
 We came from nothing
 But nothing can tear us apart

Now that I'm sober, I think of October
 As a time when you're close to my heart
 Though I don't remember
 You once were cradled in arms

And time after time
 You've been inclined
 Ab Eb Ab

To blame everything that you are
 So try not to worry
 Consider the stars
 We came from nothing
 But nothing can tear us apart

In February a spirit and his fairies
 Sing out on an old cabin porch
 'Cause if it's not for healing
 Then what was the hurting for?

In March and July
 Their voices arrived
 To a song they sang long before

So try not to worry
 Consider the stars
 We came from nothing
 But nothing can tear us apart

So try not to worry
 Consider the stars
 We came from nothing
 But nothing can tear us apart
 Sometimes I remember that it is November
 And I once was cradled in arms
