       G Em Am D
That's life (that's life), that's what all the people say
                            Α7
 You're ridin' high in April, shot down in May

                                 Em Em

                            it keeps spinnin' around
I've been a puppet, a pauper, a pirate, a poet, a pawn and a
I've been up and down and over and out, and I know one thing
Each time I find myself flat on my face
I pick myself up and get back in the race
