

Frank Turner - Long Live The Queen

Tom: A
Intro: A

I was sipping on a Whiskey when I got the call Yeah my friend Lex was lying in the hospital She'd been pretty sick for about half a year
But it seems liked this time the end was drawing near So dropped my plans and jumped the next London train
I found her laid up and in a lot of pain
Her eyes met mine and then I understood That the weather forecast wasn't looking too good
So I sat and spun her stories for a little while Tried to raise her mood and tried to raise a smile
But she silenced all my rambling with a shake of her head Drew me close and listen this is what she said now

Refrão:
"You'll live to dance another day,
it's just now you'll have to dance, for the two of us,
so stop looking so damn depressed
and sing with all your heart
that the Queen is dead"

Yeah she told me she was sick of all the hospital food
And of doctors, distant relatives, draining her blood
She said "I know I'm dying, but I'm not finished just yet, I am dying for a drink and for a cigarette"
So we hatched a plan to book ourselves a cheap hotel
In the centre of the City and to raise some Hell They waste to all the clubs and then when everyone else is long asleep

We know we're good and done
Refrão:
"You'll live to dance another day,
it's just now you'll have to dance, for the two of us,
so stop looking so damn depressed
and sing with all your heart
that the Queen is dead"

Bridge:
And South London's not the same anymore
The Queen is dead, and the last of the great has finally gone to bed

Verso:
Well I was working on some words when Sarah called me up
She said that Lex had gone asleep and wasn't waking up
And even though I knew that there was nothing to be done
I felt bad for not being there and now, well, she was gone
So I tried to think what Lex would want me to do
At times like this when I was feeling blue
So I gathered up some friends to spread the sad sad news
And we headed to the City for a drink or two
And we sang

Refrão:
"We live to dance another day, it's just now we have to dance for one more of us,
so stop looking so damn depressed,
and sing with all our hearts,
long live the Queen"
