

Franz Ferdinand - Wine In The Afternoon

Tom: D

D
So this is summer and the calor gas is running low Bm

D Bm
But I don't mind, I'm doing things and I'm doing them with you

Gb G
Well, you know he's gonna want his rent tonight

D A
But we'll have to tell him how to swallow

G
All the rent this month

D Bm
So summer stains the sky with inky swirls that bring the thunder low

D Bm
But I don't mind, I'm doing things and doing them with you

Gb G
And if you're smart you'll put that book back down

D A
You'll drag me to the floor

G A
Drag me down for more

G A
Drinking wine

G A D
Drinking wine in the afternoon, do-do, do-dooo

G A
Drinking wine

G A D
Drinking wine in the afternoon, do-do, do-dooo

Gb G
Tomorrow's Thursday, that's my day of work

D A G

That's my day of walking up the merry hill road making up

A
Some lie about some job applied for

G A
Well, I've been drinking wine

G A D
Well, I've been drinking wine in the afternoon, do-do, do-dooo

Gb G
Fifty little filters left their filthy butts behind

Left their blackened heads down

A G
In the ashes that's the last before

D
I pulled apart and placed within the papers

A G
For a drag of five deserves a second life

A G
Deserves a second life, don't we all?

D A G A
Don't we all, don't we all, don't we all, all

G A
Love drinking wine

G A D
Love drinking wine in the afternoon (pa-pa...), do-do, do-dooo (pa-pa...)

G A
Love drinking wine

G A D
Love drinking wine in the afternoon (pa-pa...), do-do, do-dooo (pa-pa...)

Bottle of wine, bottle of wine, bottle of wine, bottle of wine
Bottle of wine, bottle of wine, bottle of wine, bottle of wine
Bottle of wine, bottle of wine, bottle of wine, bottle of wine
