

Frente - Cuscutlan

Tom: A

Date: Wed, 25 Feb 1998 21:02:50 -0800
From: Kai Bilobran

-----
from Marvin the Album
Simon Austin did this song in particular

tabs done by Kai Bilobran

playing this riff 3 times they start playing chords. I don't know how to figure out chords so if someone could figure the rest of the song out please send it to me, submit it, just get it out to the world!

play 3 times and then start doing chords I haven't figured out.
This riff also comes up again near the end.

Here are the lyrics:

(female voice)
I love my country but it wears a uniform.
It speaks with foreign guns, in the background

you can almost hear the sound of intervention.

And I don't know when liberty fell
but we rang every mission bell
we rang them loud and clearly to a world that wouldn't listen

CHORUS
(male voice)
and I don't wanna die
I'm as innocent as anybody I don't even know how to spell revolutionary jesus in the sky
the bullets and the guns, you don't even know what we mean by repression (last word might be oppression)

(male and female duet)
blood is the color of the sunset
you walked into the darkness
i did not hear your last breath
there will not be an inquest

(just girl)
this is not human interest!
END CHORUS

we danced the dirt with surrender for our drumbeat
danced for the balance sheet
died for the kind of lasting peace
that pleases the world's policeman

our/and fatherland raped motherhood
and told her it was for the global good
and now we ring the mission bell to warn their children

CHORUS

play that riff again here and then there's an outro

tada!
[ Part 2: "Attached Text" ]

-----
from Marvin the Album
Simon Austin did this song in particular

tabs done by Kai Bilobran

playing this riff 3 times they start playing chords. I don't know how to figure out chords so if someone could figure the rest of the song out please send it to me, submit it, just get it out to the world!

play 3 times and then start doing chords I haven't figured out.
This riff also comes up again near the end.

Here are the lyrics:

(female voice)
I love my country but it wears a uniform.
It speaks with foreign guns, in the background

you can almost hear the sound of intervention.

And I don't know when liberty fell
but we rang every mission bell
we rang them loud and clearly to a world that wouldn't listen

CHORUS
(male voice)
and I don't wanna die
I'm as innocent as anybody I don't even know
how to spell revolutionary jesus in the sky
the bullets and the guns, you don't even know what
we mean by repression (last word might be oppression)

(male and female duet)
blood is the color of the sunset
you walked into the darkness
i did not hear your last breath
there will not be an inquest

(just girl)
this is not human interest!
END CHORUS

we danced the dirt with surrender for our drumbeat
danced for the balance sheet
died for the kind of lasting peace
that pleases the world's policeman

our/and fatherland raped motherhood
and told her it was for the global good
and now we ring the mission bell to warn their children

CHORUS

play that riff again here and then there's an outro

tada!

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com