tom:

Dm

Intro: Dm

Dm Bb

Eyes fill as he sighs

The yellow smile recognizes déjà vu

But still falls like a child in a magic trick

Can you repeat for me?

Dm Bb F A Dm Bm F A7

It comforts me! It comforts me!

The screen says what ears want to hear again

Can you hear the drums announcing your arrival?

Screamed words

Fingers point to the sky

They know very well (how to convince)

That they can still be useful

For the good of all

Of everyone by your side

On the platform

Eyes fill as he sighs

The yellow smile recognizes déjà vu

But still falls like a child in a magic trick

Can you repeat for me? (Yeah)

The flag danced on the pole again

Can you hear the angels screaming your name?

The flag danced on the pole again

Can you hear the angels screaming your name?
