"I just don't understand"
 lyrics

Verse 1

I remember when, nothin made any sense
 Everything ya said, never clicked in my head
 Never really cared, I didn't ever know
 But if I glared, your eyes would roll

Chorus 1

Everything you say, that I just don't understand
 Nothing went my way, and I just don't understand
 I know what your gonna say, and I just don't understand
 But I'll be okay, and I'll never understand

Verse 2

I still don't know, if anything makes any sense
 I really hope so, cuz I don't understand
 I hope that soon, something will crack
 And then, everything will be back.

Chorus 2

Everything you say, that I just don't understand
 Nothing went my way, and I just don't understand
 I know what your gonna say, and I just don't understand
 But I'll be okay, and I'll never understand
 Interlude

Chorus 3

Everything you say, that I just don't understand
 Nothing went my way, and I just don't understand
 I know what your gonna say, and I just don't understand
 But I'll be okay, and I'll never understand
