 Have you ever wondered about our old nu-metal friends and what became of them?
 D Em A
 Turns out I saw them a couple of days ago,
 Em Bm Em A
 They were laughing and drinking and smoking and singing.
 D
 C'mon, can you count all the notches in your belt?
 Em A A A D
 I'd rather not, let's just say I'm starving myself.

D
 Baby, put your name down on a piece of paper
 Em A A A D
 I don't want no savior baby, I just wanna have a good time

D Em A D D D Gb A
 Oh-oh oh, Oh-uh oh
 D Em A D
 At least I'm not as sad as I used to be

D
 And they said,
 Dbm D Em
 "Hey Nate, yeah it's been a while,
 Are you gonna sing?"
 D
 I began to smile and I said,
 D Em A
 "You should've seen me a couple of years ago,
 Em Bm Em A
 I was laughing and drinking and smoking and singing."

D
 C'mon can you count all the loves that didn't last?
 Em D D D Gb A
 It's such a gas when you bring up the past.
 D Em
 Baby, put your name down on a piece of paper.
 Em
 I don't want no savior baby

A A A D
 I just wanna get it out.

D Em A D D D Gb A
 Oh-oh oh, Oh-uh oh

 And they say we would've seen you two years ago
 A A Bm Db D
 Had you stuck around or come out to a show,

 But youth's taken over by rock and roll,
 A G Gbm E
 While we were laughing and drinking and smoking and singing....

D Em A D D
 So I left, That is it. That's my life, Nothing is sacred.
 Bm Em
 I don't keep friends, I keep acquainted,
 A
 I'm not a prophet, But I'm here to profit.

D Em A D D
 That's all, I'm gone! That's my life, Nothing is sacred.
 Bm Em
 I don't fall in love, I just fake it.
 A A A D
 I don't fall in love. I don't fall in love.
