

Fun. - Barlights

Tom: A

(intro) (D)

D E
Never in all of my life

A D
Have I seen eyes as empty as these streets of my city

D
on a Saturday night,

E A Abm D
all the green of your eyes says "Go, leave it all behind."

D E
But I don't need to be reminded a change is gonna come.

D E
I can feel it on the tip of your tongue.

A D A
And I feel alive, feel alive, feel alive.

D E
We met up once we'd settled the sun

A Abm
Between the heat and the work week

D
The fear is we could use some sleep

D E
but sleep to a superfluous man means better use for beds

A Abm D
and I'll bet I'm coming home alone tonight.

D E
I don't need to be reminded this is how it was.

D E
I moved on, I passed a billboard down my block

D E
that asks if I've had enough, and aloud I say "I've had too much"

D E
when the truth is, I'm just getting started.

A
Now all the barlights are blinking in time

D E Gb E D
to Mexican music, it's taunting the pavement

A D
And I feel alive, feel alive, feel alive.

D E
One of us sings, and one of us drinks,

A

and one of us has nothing at all.

D
So he calls us all sheep

E A
I'm the Little Bo Peep of the bunch.

(I take their tales and I'm ready to go)

D E
Then he swears he's gotta take this call

A Abm D
Man, I'm scared he's gonna leave us too soon.

D
We were the get rich quick kids,

E
We never got it right

D E
So we settled for the center in town

D E
Where all the rich white kids is out looking for a fight

D E
got the blond one staring me down.

D E
and I really wanna take a swing

A Abm D
I can't help but remember James Dean

D E
See we are part of the few who agree

D
that hey, he lived life fast

E
but he died.

he died.

he died.

A
Me, I'm gonna live forever.

A D A
(And I feel alive, feel alive, feel alive)

A
Now all the barlights are blinking in time

D A
to Mexican music, it's taunting the pavement

and for the first time,

D
in a long time,

A
I feel alive.
