

Gabriel Gonçalves - I'll Rise Again

tom:

Intro: Am D Am
Em D C Bm Am

I will rise again

I'll break these chains

Through the honor, through the pain

I'm wanna start again

With every scar, I'll stand own my ground

In the darkest night

When the moon feels cold

I find the strength within my soul

I'm wanna start to go

I'll stand tall, and I won't stay away

When the world feels heavy, and hope is gone

I'll find my own way

(Am D Am)
(Em D C Bm Am)

Life's a winding road

It can test our will

But I won't let it hold me still

This might make me a little ill

With every stumble, I keep finding my own way

In the face of doubt

I'm gonna rise again

Filling with faith in my heart

I won't change the plan

With resilience, I'm gonna win the fight

When the world feels heavy, and hope is gone

I'll find my own way

(Am D Am)
(Em D C Bm Am)

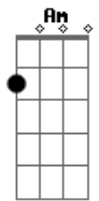

When the world feels heavy, and hope is gone

I'll find my own way

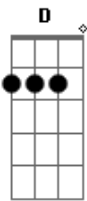

If the world make me unhappy, and the peace is gone

I'm gonna try to fly away
