

Gabrielle Aplin - Rings Round Roses

Tom: G

I guess it's funny how things change
 I turn a corner and your life has turned a page
 I saw the story in your eyes begin to fade before you hit the ground
 I saw you hit the ground

Trying to work out what it means
 How can it all come down to lies upon a screen?
 How can we lose something we've tried so hard to keep out of the lost and found?
 The lost and found

So keep your head up in the clouds
 Live tomorrow now
 Run rings 'round roses til we all fall down
 Til we all fall down

You said you want to move away

Live by the sea and watch the rising of the waves
 But don't feel guilty 'cause you know I'm gonna stay
 Look at all we found
 Look at all we found

Chorus:
 So keep your head up in the clouds
 Live tomorrow now
 Run rings 'round roses til we all fall down
 Keep dancing til your last song's sung
 Til your last breath's done
 Run rings 'round roses til we all fall down

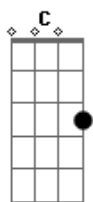

And time won't slow
 It's ticking on our shoulders
 No one knows, oh, no body knows.

Chorus:
 So keep your head up in the clouds.
 Live tomorrow now
 Run rings 'round roses til we all fall down.
 Keep dancing till your last song's sung.
 Til your last breath's done
 Run rings 'round roses til we all fall down
 Til we all fall down.
