

Gabrielle Aplin - Sweet Nothing

Tom: E

Intro: 2x: E Abm A E

verse 1:

The rain starts falling when you're calling me

Why can't you see?

I'm diving under water just to breathe

(Pre-Chorus)

And I'm feeling lonely

I'm feeling blue

Won't you please give me something

I don't believe in your sweet nothing

(refrão)

I feel your arms around me

You say you feel the love

And oh I feel alone

You think you understand me

But I don't even understand me at all

I feel alone

verse 2:

London living, nothing comes for free

Why can't you see?

Time won't heal it, just conceal for me

And I'm feeling lonely

I'm feeling blue

Won't you please give me something

I don't believe in your sweet nothing

I feel your arms around me

You say you feel the love

And oh I feel alone

You think you understand me

But I don't even understand me at all

I feel alone

I feel alone

I feel your arms around me

You say you feel the love

And oh I feel alone

You think you understand me

But I don't even understand me at all

I feel alone
