 Today, I saw the same old crowd I knew before
 When they asked me what had happened, I tried to tell them
 Thanks to Calvary, I don't come here anymore

 Thanks to Calvary I am not the man (dad) I used to be
 Thanks to Calvary things are different than before
 And as the tears ran down my face I tried to tell them (him)
 Thanks to Calvary, I (we) don't come (live) here anymore

My little boy ran and hid behind the door
 And I said "Son don't be afraid, you've got a new Daddy
 Thanks to Calvary we don't live here anymore
