

Gamma Ray - Pray

```
Tom: Gb
                                                                            B Ebm E
                                                            All we can do is pray
  Intro: Gb Abm E (3x)
                                                                                          Fbm
                                                                 В
     Gb Abm Db E B
                                                             In the darkness we hide and we wait for the light and we pray
            Е
                                                             Oh we pray, let us pray
So here we stand again
                                                             Solo: Abm Gb Ebm E (2x)
   Abm Dbm Gb
Like dust on mother earth
                                                                 Dbm Abm Gb
    B E
And we hide our faces in our dreams
                                                              I've seen the darkside of the moon in my dreams
                                                                              Abm
                   Gb
                                 Fbm
                                                                 Dbm
Only emptiness where angels flew high on golden wings
                                                             Now I know it ain't a place to live for us all
Abm Gb Ebm E
And the voice of god has vanished now lost inside our dreams
                                                             Abm Ebm E B

All our gods creation is dead and gone

Dbm Abm A
      Dbm Abm Gb
                                                                                                 Α
                                                             Now we stand like children all alone forever
But the only way to go is heaven
              B Ebm E
                                                                             В
All we can do is pray
                                                             All we can do is pray
B
Ebm
    В
                                Ebm
                                                             Forever and forever and forevermore
In the darkness we stand with the world in our hands
    Dbm
                                                               Abm Gb
And we pray
                                                             For better tomorrow we wait
  Abm
                                                             Db Fm Gb
For a better tomorrow
                                                            Pray
 Gb
                                                                     Db
We wait
                                                             There's a light in the dark
                                                                  Fm
                                                             And it's shining so bright on our way
Far beyond the horizon
                                                             Bbm
                                                                               Abm
                                                             Still there is hope on our way
  Ebm
There's a sound in the sky
                                                                  В
Abm Ebm E
                                                             And we pray
The voice of glory I hear a silent cry

Dbm Abm Gb

When the heroes of yesterday are gone
                                                              Db Gb
                                                             Oooooo, pray
```

Acordes

