

Garth Brooks - The cowboy Song

Tom: C

1. Pushin' horns weren't easy like the movies said it was,
and I don't recall no dance hall girls or hotel rooms with rugs.

You worked hot and tired and nasty, rode you pony's head too low, there were all the nights you couldn't sleep 'cause it was too damn cold.

And you'd sing, "Strawberry Roan" and "Little Joe".
2. Like the time we hit the river and the rains began to fall, and the water was rising so damn fast we thought it'd drown us all.

We lost a lot of steers that day and four or five good mounts, but when all the boys rode into camp we knew that's what counts.
And we sang, "Yippee Ti Yi Yay" and "Amazing Grace".

Or the night they broke behind us, and then they took us by surprise
I whistled out to Bonner I seen the terror in his eyes.

And he rode for all his horse would ride and I know he done his best,
but he crossed over Jordan ridin' Dunny to his death.

And we sang, "Bringin' in the Sheaves" and "The Rugged Cross".

Instrumental (similar to verse 1, line 1-4):
C - F - C - G C - F - C - G - C

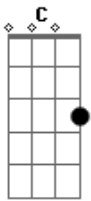

3. So when you see the cowboy, he's not ragged by his choice, he never meant to bow them legs or put that gravel in his voice.

He's just chasin' what he really loves and what's burning in his soul, wishin' to God that he'd been born and hundred years ago, still singin', "Strawberry Roan" and "Little Joe".

Instrumental (similar to verse 3, line 1-4):
C - F - C - G C - F - C - G - C ...
