

Gene Clark - Life's Greatest Fool

Tom:

Intro: G

G D C Am
 Some walk out winners of those who've lost
 G D C
 Can it be said at any price this is the cost?
 G D C Am
 Hard is perception, easier is blame
 G D C D G
 Is this the only life for everyone? Is it the same?
 D C Am
 Children laugh and run away
 G D C
 While others look into the darkness of the day
 G D C Am
 Some streets are easy while some are cruel
 G D C D G
 Could these be reasons why man is life's greatest fool?
 D A
 Do you believe, when you're all alone
 C G
 You held the key to your destiny gone?
 D A
 Do you believe, deep in your soul

C G A D
 That too much loneliness makes you grow old?
 (G D C Am)
 (G D C)
 (G D C Am)
 (G D C D G)
 G D C Am
 Words can be empty, though filled with sound
 G D C
 Stoned numb and drifting, hard to be profound
 G D C Am
 Formed out of pleasure, chiseled by pain
 G D C D G
 Never the highest, and not the last one to gain
 D A
 Do you believe, when you're all alone
 C G
 You held the key to your destiny gone?
 D A
 Do you believe, deep in your soul
 C G A D
 That too much loneliness makes you grow old?
 (D A C G)
