

Gene Clark - Silent Crusade

Tom: G
Intro: G

G Am
I am told that my life is a clipper
F C G
The sea of time has tossed about
Am
And I know that there's only one skipper
F C G
Who can guide that ship about
Em D
Do the wakening eyes of the wondering soul
F C G
See within and then without?
Am
Silently the truth speaks more loudly
F C G
Than what falls from my mouth
G Am
Seems my dreams are the wings of a spirit
F C G
This vessel sails can't fill without
Am

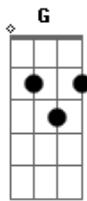

From its wind comes the light of inspiration
F C G
And the darkness of doubt

Em D
Gales of anger that wane into the calm
F C G
Please take me drifting far away
Am
From the wordy and worldly explanation
F C G
Of the space we call today

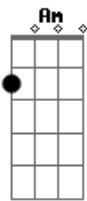

Bm
Sail away
F C G
Sail away from the shore
D Em C D G
Situations, weigh the anchor once more

Bm
Sail away
F C G
Sail away from the shore
D Em C D G
Situations, weigh the anchor once more
