

George Ezra - Cassy o

Tom: D

D
Cassy's got a new plan
Gotta get herself away
Well, I'd better act quick
Yeah, I'd better change my ways

D
Oh, maybe I'm wasting
Maybe I'm chasing time
Oh, come on, let's face it
I'm only ever lost in mine

G A
Well, I got my tracing paper
G A
So that I could trace my clock
G A
And the bastard face kept changing
D
And the hands, they wouldn't stop

G A
I was ripping out the battery
G A
I received myself a shock
G A
And to add insult to injury
D
I could still hear tick & tock

D
CASSY O'

CASSY O'
CASSY O'

D

Cassy's got a new plan
Gotta give herself a break
And I try, I try, I try
For heaven's sake

G A
Well, I traveled to Australia
G A
And I traveled there by train
G A
This something might sound strange to you
D
But on the way I gained a day

G A
And I wrote to tell my family
G A
And I wrote to tell my friends
G A
I arrived home, it was lost again
D
And this torture never ends

D

G A D Bm
Inspector, fix me, my Cassy O's burnt out
G A D Bm
We're losing memories that I can't replace
G A D Bm
She says she's tired of me running in circles
G A D Bm
She says it's time that we took a break
