

George Harrison - Answers At The End

Tom: F

Fdim
Intro: D Fdim Em7 A7 D

D Fdim
Scan not a friend with a microscopic glass
Em7 A7
You know his faults, now let the foibles pass
D Fdim
Life is one long enigma, my friend
Em7 A7 D
So read on, read on, the answer's at the end

Bb C F Am
Don't be so hard on the ones that you love
Bb C Em7 A
It's the ones that you love we think so little of
Bb C F Am
Don't be so hard on the ones that you need
Bb C Em7 A
It's the ones that you need we think so little of

The speech of flowers excels the flowers of speech
But what's often in your heart, is the hardest thing to reach
And life is one long mystery, my friend
So live on, live on, the answer's at the end

Don't be so hard on the ones that you love
It's the ones that you love we think so little of
Don't be so hard on the ones that you need
It's the ones that you need we think so little of

Don't be so hard on the ones that you love

It's the ones that you love we think so little of
Don't be so hard on the ones that you need
It's the ones that you need we think so little of

Em A Em A
Oh, we think so little of the ones that we love, sometimes
Em
Isn't it a pity how we hurt
A
The ones that we love the most of all
Em A
The ones we shouldn't hurt at all

Mini Solo: D Fdim

You know my faults, now let the foibles pass
'Cause life is one long enigma, my friend
Live on, live on, the answer's at the end

Don't be so hard on the ones that you love
It's the ones that you love we think so little of
Don't be so hard on the ones that you need
It's the ones that you need we think so little of

Don't be so hard on the ones that you love
It's the ones that you love we think so little of
Don't be so hard on the ones that you need
It's the ones that you need we think so little of

The ones that we love
We hurt the most of all, sometimes
And isn't it a pity how
We hurt the ones that we love (fade)
