

George Harrison - Blood From a Clone

Tom: G
Intro: G D G D G D G D

A D A
They say they like it, now, but in the market it
D A D A E
May not go well as it's too laid back.
D A D A D
You need some oomph-papa, nothing like Frank Zappa
A D A E
And not New Wave they don't play that crap

C G
Try beating your head on a brick wall
D E A
Hard like a stone
C G
Don't have time for the music
Bb A D [INTRO]
They want the blood from a clone

I hear a clock ticking
I feel the nitpicking
I almost quit kicking at the wall
There seems a confusion, under the illusion
That they know just what will suit you all

Beating my head on a brick wall
Hard like a stone
Ain't got time for the music
They want the blood from a clone

There is no sense to it
Pure pounds and pence to it
They're so intense too makes me amazed
Don't want no music but, they're making you sick with
Some awful noises that may get played

By beating their heads on a brick wall
Hard like a stone
Ain't no messing 'round with music
Give them the blood from a clone

Where will it all lead us
I thought we had freed us
From the mundane seems I'm wrong again
Could be they lack roots, they're still wearing jack boots
They're marching somewhere in the pouring rain

Beating my head on a brick wall
Hard like a stone
Don't have time for the music
They want the blood from a clone
