

George Harrison - Miss Odell

Tom: G
Intro: Em A Em C G

G
I'm the only one down here
Who's got nothing to say
About the war
Or the rice
That keeps going astray on its way to Bombay.

Em A
The smog that keeps polluting up our shores
Em
Is boring me to tears.
C G
Why don't you call me, Miss O'Dell?

G
I'm the only one down here
Who's got nothing to fear
From the waves
Or the night
That keeps rolling on right up to my front porch.

Em A

The record player's broken on the floor,
Em
And Ben, he can't restore it.
C G
Won't you call me, Miss O'Dell?

F7M C
I can tell-lll you
G
Nothing new
C F7M D
Has happened since I last saw you.

G
And I'm the only one down here
Who's got nothing to say
About the hip
Or the dope
Or the cat with most hope to fill the Fillmore.

Em A
Your pushing, shoving, ringing on my bell
Em
Is not for me tonight.
C G
So, won't you call me, Miss O'Dell?
