

Giant - It Takes Two

Tom: C

Int: Am F Am F G Am F G

Oh here I am, looking back again, at the road that led to you
 Oh the time's alright, tryin' to save myself from looking out at you
 I walk alone, while you are waiting, but somehow you saw through me
 And now I'm standing at your door, you're the only one I need

Chorus:
 It takes two, two hearts that beat together, to make it feel like one
 Body and soul surrender, when love has just begun
 It takes two, it takes two
 I've been blinded by this fear inside that love is just a game
 You distract yourself with someone else, and both havin' travelled in pain
 Bow now I see the road I've taken, will lead me to nothing more Than empty rooms without your love, girl, I'm standing at your door

chorus

It takes two, two hearts that beat together, to make it feel like one
 Body and soul surrender, when love has just begun
 It takes two, it takes two oho
