

Gilberto Gil - Goodbye, My Girl

tom:

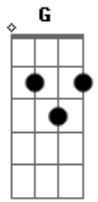

Keep on sleeping, girl, it's dawning
 I'll be leaving soon
 When you wake up in the morning
 I won't be with you
 Good-bye
 Please, don't cry

We should try
 To get together one more time
 So catch a train and you can make the next town
 To see the show
 I will be singing one more time
 And yours will be the only face in the front row
 Good-bye, my girl
