

Gin Wigmore - I Will Love You

Tom: C

Oh, let me fold into you
 Feel the weight of your skin
 I'll be the warm place to hide
 When nobody can get in
 I think you like it here in my arms
 Don't let your head decide who we are
 I think I've found all I can wish for
 And then some

I will love you, I will love you
 Until the blood all leaves these veins
 Don't you let us, don't you let us
 Lose to an early grave
 Give me a lifetime and then fifty more
 To find the words that will never explain
 How I need you, how I see you
 How you are everything that I have

You are the fire to my thoughts
 The spark that starts it all
 And with your eyes you can move me
 To your World so far apart
 If you die before I do
 I know that heartache will kill me too
 So if I ever lived again, it will be to find you

Where I can love you I will love you
 Until the blood all leaves these veins
 Don't you let us, don't you let us
 Lose to an early grave
 Give me a lifetime and then fifty more
 To find the words that will never explain
 How I need you, how I see you
 How you are everything that I have

So if you die before I do
 I know that heartache will kill me too
 So if I ever lived again, it will be to find you

Where I will love you, I will love you
 Until the blood all leaves these veins
 Don't you let us, don't you let us
 Lose to an early grave
 Give me a lifetime and then fifty more
 To find the words that will never explain
 How I need you, how I see you
 How you are everything that I have

How I need you, how I see you
 How you are everything that I have
 How you are everything that I have
